National Severe Weather Warning Service

Chief Forecasters Assessment
A wintry mix of showers will continue to feed inland across coasts of eastern Scotland during Wednesday night. As these fall onto frozen ground, icy stretches are likely to form on untreated surfaces.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Ice

Valid from 20:00 on Wed, 21st Jan 2015 until 11:00 on Thu, 22nd Jan 2015

Showers of rain or sleet, with some snow inland, will affect eastern parts of Aberdeenshire and Angus on Wednesday night. This may lead to ice forming on untreated surfaces, which will persist into Thursday morning.. Showers should become more isolated during the early hours of Thursday.

The public should be aware of possible disruption to transport.
